ATTACHMENT A

1. On November 30, 2020, a Hidalgo County Sheriff's Deputy conducted a traffic stop in Pharr, Texas on a Ford white Escape. The driver of the white Ford Escape was identified as Esteban PADRON (hereafter, PADRON). PADRON provided consent for the Hidalgo County Sheriff's Deputy to search the white Ford Escape.
2. The Hidalgo County Sheriff Deputy then conducted a search of the Ford white Escape. Within the backseat area, a grocery bag was found containing one (1) brick of a powdery substance wrapped with brown tape. The substance field tested positive for the characteristics of fentanyl with a total approximate weight of 582 grams.
3. PADRON was provided his Miranda Warnings and agreed to speak with Drug Enforcement Administration Special Agents. PADRON stated he received the package from another individual. PADRON stated he knew there were illegal narcotics within the package in his vehicle. He stated he was to transport and deliver the package of narcotics to another individual. He stated he was to be paid $1,000.
